GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

The grievance procedure is an administrative remedy, prescribed by HUD to the Tuscaloosa Housing Authority (hereinafter referred to as PHA), to ensure adequate due process regarding adverse actions against public housing resident.

A. Purpose and Scope

The purpose of the grievance procedures is to assure that the residents are afforded an opportunity for a hearing, if the resident disputes within a reasonable time, any PHA action or failure to act, involving the resident's lease, or PHA regulations which adversely affect the individual resident's right's, duties, welfare, or status, including, but not limited to:

- Community Service and Self-Sufficiency Requirements
- Minimum rent hardship exemptions
- Income changes resulting from welfare program requirements
- Improper disclosure or inappropriate use of information obtained by the PHA through criminal records, sex offender registration records, drug abuse treatment facility records and domestic violence records.

1. The grievance procedure shall be applicable to all individual grievances as defined herein.
2. The PHA will furnish a copy of the grievance procedure to each tenant and to resident organizations.

B. Governing Law

The law governing this grievance procedure is Section 6 (K) of the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. sec. 1437d(k)) and subpart B of 24 CFR part 966 (24 CFR secs. 966.50-966.57).

C. Definitions

The following definitions of terms shall be applicable to this grievance procedure:

1. Grievance: Any dispute which a resident may have with respect to an action or a failure to act by the PHA in accordance with the individual resident's lease or PHA regulations, which adversely affects the individual resident's rights, duties, welfare or status.
2. Complainant: Any resident whose grievance is presented to the PHA or at the project management office in accordance with the requirements set forth in this procedure.
3. Elements of Due Process: An eviction action or termination of tenancy in a state or local court in which the following procedural safeguards are required:
 - a. Adequate notice to the resident of the grounds for terminating the tenancy and for eviction;
 - b. Right of the resident to be represented by counsel;
 - c. Opportunity for the resident to refute the evidence presented by the PHA, including the right to confront and cross examine witnesses and to present any affirmative legal or equitable defense which the resident may have; and

- d. A decision on the merits.
4. Expedited Grievance: The procedure established by the PHA for any grievance concerning a termination of tenancy or eviction that involves:
 - a. Any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety and right to peaceful enjoyment of the PHA's public housing premises by other residents or employees of the PHA; or
 - b. Any drug-related or violent criminal activity on or off PHA premises.
5. Hearing Officer or Hearing Panel: An impartial person or persons selected by the PHA, other than the person who made or approved the decision under review, or a subordinate of that person. Such individual or individuals do not need legal training.
6. Resident organization: An organization of residents, which includes any resident management corporation.
7. Resident: The adult person (or persons) other than a live-in aid:

E. Exceptions

These procedures are applicable to all individual grievances, as defined in Section C of this Policy, between the resident and the PHA with the following exceptions:

1. The PHA's grievance procedures are not applicable to disputes between residents not involving the PHA, or to class grievances.
2. The grievance procedures are not intended as a forum for initiating or negotiating policy changes between a group or groups of residents and the PHA's Board of Commissioners; and
3. Due Process Determination
 - a. A determination by HUD that law of the jurisdiction requires that the resident must be given the opportunity for a hearing in court which provides the basic elements of due process before eviction from the unit. If HUD has issued a due process determination, the PHA may exclude from the PHA's administrative grievance procedure any grievance concerning a termination of tenancy or eviction that involves:
 - 1) Any criminal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents or employees of PHA; or
 - 2) Any violent or drug-related criminal activity on or off such premises; or

- 3) Any criminal activity that resulted in felony conviction of a household member.
 - b. HUD will publish in the Federal Register a notice listing the judicial eviction procedures for which HUD has issued a due process determination.
 - c. HUD will make available for public inspection and copying a copy of the legal analysis on which the determinations are based.
 - d. If HUD has issued a due process determination, the PHA may evict the occupants of the unit through the judicial eviction procedures which are the subject of the determination.
 - e. In this case, the PHA is not required to provide the opportunity for a grievance hearing under the PHA's administrative grievance procedure.
4. Improper use of or disclosure of information obtained by the PHA through criminal records, sex offender registration records, and drug abuse treatment facility records, may be the subject of a grievance by a complainant of the PHA.

F. Grievance Process

Grievances shall be personally presented, either orally or in writing, to the PHA's central office, or to the office of the development in which the complainant resides.

Except as stated above, the PHA's procedures shall afford each resident an opportunity for a hearing on a grievance, in accordance with the requirements, standards, and criteria contained in these procedures, with such modifications as are required by state law.

1. Informal Settlement of Grievance

The primary objective of this process is to informally discuss and settle the grievance at the lowest level and as quickly as possible without a hearing.

- a. The PHA will review the grievance to:
 - 1) Ensure that the grievance can be appropriately address during the grievance process.
 - 2) Ensure the grievance is referred to the appropriate department or office responsible for the matter being grieved.
 - 3) Ensure the PHA is correctly handling disputes that differ from PHA operations, such as on allegations of discrimination or harassment.
 - 4) Inform the complainant may attend with a representative at their discretion and expense.
- b. The PHA will prepare a summary of such discussion within five (5) business days.
- c. A copy of the summary of such discussion will be given to the resident and one shall be retained in the PHA's resident file. The summary of discussion will specify:
 - 1) The names of the participants,

- 2) Date(s) of the meeting(s),
 - 3) The nature of the proposed disposition of the complainant and the specific reasons therefore,
 - 4) The rights of the complainant to a grievance hearing, and
 - 5) The procedures by which a grievance hearing may be obtained if the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of the informal discussion.
- d. The PHA shall specifically include notice to the complainant of the following:
- 1) The time limit to request a grievance hearing;
 - 2) The grievance hearing will be heard by a hearing officer or a hearing panel, and the procedures for selecting the hearing officer or hearing panel;
 - 3) What specifically must be included in the complainant's request for a grievance hearing;
 - 4) If the complainant fails to request a hearing within the required time period (5 business days) after receiving the summary, the PHA's decision rendered at the Informal Settlement conference becomes final. However, the complainant does not waive the right to contest the PHA's action in an appropriate judicial proceeding;
 - 5) The complainant's rights to be represented by counsel or other representative at the grievance hearing; and
 - 6) The complainant requesting a hearing has a right to examine any PHA documents relevant to the hearing, including records and regulations. The complainant shall be allowed to obtain a copy from the PHA of any such documentation at the complainant's expense.
2. Procedures to Obtain a Grievance Hearing
- A grievance hearing must be held before a hearing officer.
- a. Request for a Grievance Hearing:
- 1) The complainant shall submit a written or oral request for a hearing to the PHA, or to the development office, within five (5) business days after receipt of the written summary of the Informal Settlement conference.
 - 2) The written request shall specify:
 - a) The reasons for the grievance;
 - b) The action or relief sought;
 - c) The complainant's statement setting forth the times at which the complainant will be available for a hearing during the next ten (10) business days;
 - d) Complainant's preference, if any, concerning whether the grievance should be heard by a single hearing officer or by a hearing panel.

- b. If the complainant fails to request a hearing within five (5) business days after receiving the written summary of the Informal Settlement conference, the PHA's decision rendered at the Informal Settlement conference becomes final and the PHA is not thereafter obligated to offer the complainant a hearing.
- c. Should the complainant fail to request a hearing, such failure shall not constitute a waiver by the complainant of his/her right thereafter to contest the PHA's action in disposing of the complaint in an appropriate judicial proceeding.

1. Grievances shall be presented before a hearing officer or hearing panel.
2. The hearing officer or hearing panel shall be an impartial, disinterested person selected by the PHA. The hearing officer or hearing panel shall not be:

 - b. The hearing officer or hearing panel will notify both the complainant and the PHA of the determination.

3. Conducting the Hearing

The hearing shall be conducted informally by the hearing officer or hearing panel.

- a. At the hearing, the complainant must first make a showing of an entitlement to the relief sought.

- h. The hearing officer or hearing panel shall require the PHA, the complainant, legal counsel, and other participants or spectators to conduct themselves in an orderly fashion.
